[$1,000 COWBOY HAT] BIG MONEY FOR A 'GIANT' STAR

The annual James Dean Festival in his hometown of Fairmount has come and gone (it was last weekend), but the celebration continues in Marfa, Texas.

That's where Dean was filmed for his starring role in the western "Giant."

That's also near Fort Davis, Texas, the home of Limpia Creek Hats, which is hoping there are enough Dean fans out there who want to throw down $1,000 each for a replica of the natural color cowboy hat he wore in the film.

Beginning, today — the 50th anniversary of Dean's death — and continuing for exactly one year, a limited supply of 150 hats will be available. To order, call (888) 878-HATS.
